- WHY INTUITION & WHAT IS AN INTUITIVE COACH ?-

Accompanying people whilst working with your intuition is particularly relevant at this period in a time of major change. It is something that can be perfectly integrated into coaching and other counselling or therapeutic professions. This method brings the client a new clearer perspective which releases and triggers greater awareness, keys to transformation, alchemy, guidance, and real revelations.

“«INTUITION CREATES LONGER LASTING, FASTER & MORE EFFECTIVE RESULTS»”

Intuitive coaching goes much deeper into the source of a problem or challenge than traditional coaching, as it not only analyses your behaviours but also probes it on a spiritual level. It works on helping you realise who you are at your core as a person, as a spiritual being, which further leads you to discover your true purpose in life. Intuitive coaching enables you to answer some of the primary questions:

Why I am here? Who do I want to become as a person in my lifetime? What do I want to create? How to I connect the intellectual, emotional, spiritual and material parts of me and the world to really make a difference.

- Discover and learn the techniques of intuitive communication understand how intuition works, what it is, what it isn't
  - You will work on the 5 levels that anchor real deep lasting change : mental, emotional, physical, energetic and spiritual.
  - You will work on overcoming the blocks that prevent you from naturally using your intuitive intelligence (emotions and heart) an essential skill of a coach or advisor.
  - You will experiment with new coaching tools to feel what is required with a technique of intuitive reading, how to use your perceptions and intuitions.
  - You will discover the language of symbols and learn how to decipher them to give more meaning to your feelings.
  - You will learn how to consciously and constantly communicate using your intuition, and understand how to perceive the true state of a person or situation.
  - You will identify the different modes of sensory perception and intuitive decision making.
- Learn to incorporate a new vision and way of interpreting things in your daily life that allows you to bring to light all your capabilities, access synchronicities and find the key to innovative powerful change.
